 Dame Janet Baker. ‘One of the truly great privileges is to spend one’s working life among charismatic, interesting and gifted people. It has clearly been the experience of Robert Ponsonby during his many years of artistic administration and he writes about it with obvious delight...How refreshing...to read [his] collection of portraits which steer such a well-judged course between the light and darker sides of the human condition and give us a balanced picture of his subjects...
 It is all done with wit, perception, kindness, honesty, affection and humour, leaving this reader wanting more.’
